

SPP Alumni Chapter January 2004 Newsletter

The SPP Alumni Chapter held its monthly meeting on Thursday, January 29th with over 30 students and alumni in attendance. The meeting was highlighted by a lecture, Managing the Adult Career Transition, given by the Assistant Director of GMU Career Services, Nancy Wallace. The Chapter wishes to thank Nancy for taking the time to come to our meeting and speak to the assembled students and alumni.

1. The Nominating Committee met with the Board and is seeking candidates for the June 2004 Chapter elections. The Nominating Committee is seeking candidates for the office of Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. Any alumni interested in an office on the Board of Directors for the SPP Alumni Chapter should contact the Chapter via email at sppalumn@gmu.edu.
2. The Awards Committee is coordinating nominations for awards to be presented at the Celebration of Distinction on April 21, 2004.
3. Chapter members participated in Alumni Night at the January 24th basketball game between GMU and JMU. In an exciting match-up, The Patriots overcame an 6 point half-time score to beat JMU.
4. Mark your calendars! Come out and see GMU Patriots take on the University of Delaware at Homecoming 2004 – Saturday, February 21, 2004. Stop by the SPP Alumni Chapter Tent.
5. The Signature Event Committee provided a brief report on co-hosts, speakers, and sponsorship. In addition, new volunteers came forward at the January 29 meeting to assist with ticket sales and promotions.
6. The next SPP Alumni Chapter meeting is scheduled for Thursday, February 5, 2004.
7. The Chapter can be reached via email at sppalumn@gmu.edu.
